

Urban Dove Selected to Receive Support From The Catalog for Giving of New York City

Since 1994, The Catalog for Giving has brought attention and support to select community-based organizations that are transforming the lives of at-risk youth in New York City. Urban Dove was selected in 2005 as one of ten participating organizations that will benefit from The Catalog's three-year commitment of financial support. Donors may allot their contributions to an individual organization or they can have their donation divided among all the of The Catalog's agencies. 100 percent of every donation goes directly to participating organizations.
